

Serial No.367

Document No.8

ANNUAL MEETING - JUNE 1956

ICELANDIC RESEARCH REPORT

by Jon Jonsson

The Icelandic researches in the Greenland waters in 1955 have been concentrated in the region east of Greenland.

From the waters off West Greenland a smaller number of otoliths (of cod) have been collected from Icelandic trawlers. The material has not yet been worked up.

--ooOoo--