Foreword

The NAFO Staff Rules were originally adopted at the 13th Annual Meeting in September 1991 and set out the conditions and principles of employment, duties, rights and responsibilities of staff employed in the NAFO Secretariat. Since then there have been revisions to the NAFO Staff Rules as adopted by the NAFO General Council (Commission as of 18 May 2017) at the Annual Meetings in 1998, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2016. Last update was adopted during the 2017 NAFO Annual Meeting (COM Doc. 17-20) and it is in effect 01 October 2017. These latest changes were made to reflect the merger of the General Council and Fisheries Commission into the Commission following the entry into force of the amended NAFO Convention on 18 May 2017.

NAFO made an effort to base its Staff Rules as much as possible on the guidelines for the Canadian administrative services in Canada as the host country for the NAFO Headquarters. However, these rules also take into account the intergovernmental nature of NAFO and draw on some UN Staff Regulations as well as on those from other intergovernmental bodies. This is reflected by certain rules related to the classification, installation allowance, repatriation grant as well as the salary categories of NAFO employees.

In case of doubt as to the interpretation of application of staff regulations, the staff member concerned shall request a ruling from the Executive Secretary.

Fred Kingston
Executive Secretary

Annex 1.

NAFO Staff Association and Staff Representative

Mandate of the Staff Representative

It is the obligation of the Staff Representative (SR) to ensure that staff interests are adequately presented in relevant decision-making processes. The SR has the obligation to contribute to management transparency by informing the staff in a timely fashion about important developments and decisions. Confidential and personal information cannot be disclosed without consent in writing of the individual(s) concerned. If in need of guidance, the SR can call a Staff Association meeting. In the case of a conflict within the Secretariat that cannot be solved internally, the SR can call upon the Staff Committee.

Staff Association and Election of Staff Representative

The Staff Association (SA) guides and mandates the SR to take specific actions or present particular viewpoints to the employer. All NAFO staff on permanent or at least one-year contract excluding the Executive Secretary (ES) form the SA and shall have the right to vote at the SA meetings. Decisions are valid only if at least two thirds of the members participate at the meeting and only if all possible precautions have been taken to ensure that every member had the opportunity to participate. A decision should be reached by consensus; if that is not possible, a simple majority decides. Decisions can be taken by show of hands unless requested otherwise by at least one staff member. The rules of procedure of the SA can only be changed if at least 75% of the staff agrees.

The SA elects the SR (and Vice Staff Representative if such a position is desired by the SA) by secret ballot and by simple majority¹ for a term of one (1) year starting January (if a SR is elected after January, his/her term still ends with the calendar year). Each staff member is eligible for the post and can be re-elected without restrictions. The SR can be voted out of office by simple majority at any time. The SA can decide to not have a SR. In this case, the SA must meet the following November, or prior to that upon request of three members, to re-discuss the issue. If the SR resigns, a meeting has to be called within a month to deal with the new situation.

¹ If no candidate secures the required number of votes, then:

- a) If there are only two candidates, voting shall be continued until a candidate is elected by simple majority.
- b) If there are three or more candidates, the candidate receiving the lowest number of votes shall be eliminated and voting shall be continued until a candidate is elected. If there are two or more candidates receiving the lowest number of votes, it shall be decided by separate vote which candidate shall be eliminated.

The SR can call a Staff Meeting on his/her initiative. In addition, an extraordinary SA Meeting can be called upon request of at least three staff members with an agenda circulated at least three working days before the meeting.

Rights of the Staff Representative

To fulfil his/her duties the SR has a number of rights, namely;

- Be informed about all issues (facts, events, plans, etc), negative or positive, regarding personnel matters and work situation in a timely and comprehensive fashion.
- Advise the Executive Secretary on staff preferences regarding work time regulations, work safety and health issues, review of Staff Rules, and other staff-related matters.
- Participate in STACFAD meetings when personnel matters and work situations are discussed.
- Be partially freed from ordinary work in order to research issues relevant to his/her function (point in time and amount of time granted to be agreed upon by ES and SA but not to exceed 20% of annual work time).
- Be protected from reprimand/dismissal on the grounds of his/her activities in this function.

Annex 2.

Staff Committee

Mandate

Most conflicts within the Secretariat can be and should be solved internally. In the rare case that a conflict cannot be solved internally or that its resolution causes major concern (e.g. perceived unjust dismissal of a staff member) the Staff Committee can be asked to intervene. Solutions should be achieved through mediation between the parties involved in the conflict and, if the Staff Committee finds it necessary, by bringing the case before NAFO Contracting Parties.

The Staff Committee is mandated to advise and mediate in the rare event that conflicts within the Secretariat cannot be solved internally. The Staff Committee is composed of three (3) members nominated by members of the Secretariat and appointed by the Commission. Members of the Staff Committee serve one year and can be re-elected at every Annual Meeting.

Guidelines for Staff Committee

- 1) It is the obligation of Secretariat staff and Executive Secretary to seek internal solutions to all disputes before bringing anything to the attention of the Staff Committee.
- 2) On a specific issue, one or more members of the Staff Committee can be approached by:
 - a) the Staff Representative, and/or
 - b) the Executive Secretary, and/or
 - c) three staff members¹.
- 3) The Staff Committee will treat all cases in the strictest confidence. The Staff Committee will also not disclose any names without consent of the individual concerned throughout the mediations with Secretariat staff and/or Executive Secretary.
- 4) A reasonable period of time (one month) after contacting the Staff Committee, a final decision in a case (if necessary) must be taken by the Executive Secretary considering all options presented.

¹ This means that at least three staff members have to agree that a conflict cannot be solved internally and is important enough to be brought before the Staff Committee bypassing Staff Representative and Executive Secretary. This will prevent frequent and unjustified calling on the Committee Members.

- 5) If the resolution of a case does not satisfy the Staff Committee the matter should be presented to STACFAD and the Commission at the next Annual Meeting. In severe cases, the Staff Committee may decide to contact NAFO Contracting Parties immediately and ask for guidance or action.
